All recyclable materials generated through activities using University funding, abandoned on University property, or placed in University containers will become the property of the University.

Student organizations which have collected materials for recycling prior to September 3, 1991 will be allowed to continue their activities on a similar scale. Student organizations will receive the funds generated by their recycling efforts. All materials collected by such groups must be turned over to the company currently contracted by the University.