PRE-HEALTH PROFESSIONS

Jacksonville State University provides the necessary academic experience for students who plan to seek admission to a health professional school in medicine, dentistry, optometry, physical therapy, pharmacy, veterinary medicine, physician assistant, etc. In most instances, students are expected to have completed a four-year program of study leading to a baccalaureate degree. While a specific major is not required for the health professions, most students who successfully matriculate in a health professional school, including medical school, have elected a major in biology or chemistry.

Admission to a health professional school will require successful performance on the appropriate entrance examination (the MCAT, DAT, VAT, OAT, etc.), a GPA of 3.2 or higher that has been achieved through a rigorous program of study, and a successful personal interview. These achievements are usually preceded by a serious dedication to academic studies and a high degree of competitiveness achieved through activities that demonstrate critical thinking and problem-solving skills, such as undergraduate research.

Students must be well prepared prior to seeking admission; in general, this means a basic working knowledge of biology (17 semester hours or more), chemistry (16 semester hours or more), and often physics (eight semester hours or more). Advanced course work in biology and/or chemistry is highly recommended. Admission requirements to specific schools and programs vary; therefore, students considering health profession careers must seek advice from one of the pre-health professional advisors very early in the course of study. Students should plan individual academic programs carefully, taking the specific courses required for admission to the health professional schools and programs to which they plan to apply. To ensure a successful and positive academic experience, students should work closely with the pre-health professional advisors. For this purpose, Jacksonville State University maintains a Health Careers Office in the Department of Biology.

PRE-LAW INFORMATION

There is no single prescribed course of study which pre-law students must follow in order to gain admission to law school. Law schools prefer applicants from a variety of backgrounds, so there is no designated pre-law major, minor, or concentration. However, we do suggest courses which allow students the opportunity to develop their verbal and writing skills and which foster critical and analytical thinking. Students should take challenging courses in various disciplines in order to better prepare for law school.

In addition to having an undergraduate degree, pre-law students are required to take the Law School Admission Test (LSAT) prior to entering an ABA accredited law school. This should be done late in the student's junior year or early in the student's senior year. Information regarding the law school admission process may be obtained from the Law School Admission Council at www.LSAC.org. Additional information regarding pre-law may be obtained from the Director of Academic Services, School of Arts and Humanities, located in 107 Martin Hall. A detailed web page is maintained by the Office of Academic Services that includes information related to frequently asked questions, available resources, suggested time line for preparing for and applying to law school, and employment options. The Office of Academic Services also administers a free, practice LSAT at least twice a semester for students from all majors. Visit the web page at <http://www.jsu.edu/prelaw> for the most current information related to the law school application and admission process or call us at (256) 782-8335.

HONORS PROGRAM

In keeping with the university's mission of serving the academic needs of a diverse student population, the Honors Program provides academically gifted students with the opportunity to develop fully their intellectual potential. The Honors Program provides an enriched educational experience by fostering a strong grounding in the liberal arts and sciences, small classes, interaction with other outstanding and motivated students, instruction from some of JSU's most innovative and engaging faculty, special activities, and special recognition for students successfully completing 24 hours or more of honors courses. May 1 is the priority deadline for entering freshmen applying to the Honors Program, but the Honors Program accepts applications year round. The application and guidelines are available at www.jsu.edu/cas/honors/index.html or by calling (256) 782-5696.

JSU offers honors courses which fulfill many freshman and sophomore course requirements, as well as junior and senior "Honors by Contract" opportunities in most majors. Incoming students are invited for admission to the Honors Program based on ACT or SAT test scores. Since test scores may not always provide a complete picture of ability, students may also apply to the Honors Program following the completion of their first semester at JSU if they earned a GPA of 3.50 or higher. Effective with the freshman class of Fall 2016, students must be members of the Honors Program in order to enroll in honors classes.

For further information, contact the Director of the Honors Program, Honors House, Jacksonville State University, 700 Pelham Road North, Jacksonville, AL 36265-1602; view the Honors Program website at www.jsu.edu/cas/honors; or email honors@jsu.edu.

SCHOOL OF ARTS AND HUMANITIES

Dean: TBA

MISSION

The School of Arts and Humanities offers courses in humanities and arts to support the university's general studies curriculum and educational programs, as well as traditional liberal arts, professional, and graduate programs of study leading to baccalaureate degrees and master's degrees. The school gives highest priority to the quality of teaching delivered by its diverse and highly qualified faculty, while recognizing and promoting scholarly efforts, creative endeavors, and service, internal and external to Jacksonville State University. Using available resources, the school strives continuously for academic excellence, while keeping in mind the needs of its students.

REQUIREMENTS FOR THE SCHOOL OF ARTS AND HUMANITIES

Benchmarks for Success

All new Arts and Humanities majors must meet the Benchmarks-for-Success standard. A new student entering the university in Arts and Humanities is defined as a freshman, transfer student, or a change of major from another school to Arts and Humanities.

Prior to enrollment in any upper-level (300+) coursework beyond 80 semester hours, the student must meet the following criteria:

1. A minimum overall 2.00 GPA for the first 80 semester hours must be achieved;
2. English 101 and 102, or official transfer equivalents, must be successfully completed by 80 semester hours;
3. The English Competency Exam (ECE) must be attempted by 80 semester hours; failure to complete successfully the ECE by 96 semester hours voids the student's admission into the school, and no further upper-level coursework may be taken for credit towards an Arts and Humanities program; and
4. All math requirements for the degree program must be successfully completed by 80 semester hours.

Upon completion of the benchmarks by 80 semester hours, and following department review and approval, students will be provisionally assessed to enter a degree program in the School of Arts and Humanities. Full assessment into the degree program is contingent upon completion of all requirements.

Transfer students entering with 80 or more hours who have not completed the required benchmark coursework must enroll in these courses in the first semester of study at Jacksonville State University and subsequently until all benchmark deficiencies are removed. Additionally, transfer students with 80 or more hours must register for and take the English Competency Exam in the first semester of eligibility.
