

Community Policing & Problem Solving:

WINNING BACK YOUR COMMUNITY

Sponsored by Jacksonville State University
Center for Best Practices In Law Enforcement

Two Days Only - February 15-16, 2018
8:00 am – 5:00 pm each day
JSU McClellan Center, Room 2107

This seminar is provided at NO CHARGE... with lunch and snacks provided.

Police-community relations is, by all accounts, the most critical issue facing law enforcement in America today. This two-day course is designed to provide law enforcement personnel, of all ranks, with evidence based recommendations on how to regain and improve citizen satisfaction and confidence in their local agencies and will be particularly useful to leaders participating in directing operations and formulation of departmental policies. Topics will include:

- Overview the History of Community Policing
- Policing Strategies Throughout the Decades
- Identify Today's Policing Challenges
  - Problem Solving with SARA
- Steps for Improved Citizen Satisfaction

Speaker:
Chief Harry P. Dolan
(Retired)
