

Dr. Lori J. Owens

1993 B.A. Political Science, Jacksonville State University

1995 M.A. Political Science, The University of Alabama

2001, Ph.D. Political Science with an outside minor in U.S. Constitutional History, The University of Alabama

Courses Taught: PSC 100 American Government, PSC 102 Introduction to State and Local Government, PSC 203 Introduction to the Law, PSC 301 Political Science Methods, PSC 305 Comparative and International Politics, PSC 375 Governments of Latin America, PSC 377 Governments of Africa and the Near East, PSC 421 American Diplomacy to 1900, PSC 423 Twentieth Century American Foreign Policy, PSC 493 The Judicial Process, and PSC 445 Southern Politics.

I also taught The American Presidency at The University of Alabama at Birmingham

Research interests: U.S. Judicial appointments, state redistricting, Trans-Atlantic Relations, and the Middle East

Organizations: Member and Secretary of The Alabama Women's Commission, Member, Delta Kappa Gamma International Honor Society for Women in Education; Member and Secretary, Cherokee County Family Resource Center Board of Directors; Member of the Alabama Republican Party Executive Committee; Member and Chair of the Cherokee County Republican Executive Committee; and Member of the Cherokee County Republican Women's Club.

Student Organizations: Faculty Advisor for Pre-Law Society, College Republicans, and Political Science Model Arab League Debate Team.

Professional Organizations: Chair, Alabama Higher Education Partnership; Member, Alabama Political Science Association; Member JSU Political Relations Committee; and Academic Associate for The Atlantic Council.