Petition Approved: _____ Date: _____

Petition Denied: _____ Date: _____

A non-resident student may apply for reclassification of residency by completing this form and including photo copies of relevant documents for each item checked. This completed form and documents must be submitted as a complete package to the Registrar's Office for undergraduate students or to the College of Graduate Studies for Graduate Students (see addresses on other side). A student in the United States on a student visa does not qualify for in-state residency status. The completed package which must include this form and all supporting documents must be received on or before the business day prior to the beginning of classes of the semester or term for which a reclassification of residency is being sought. For all summer terms, the deadline is the business day prior to the first class day of May term.

By completing and submitting this form, the student or supporting person declares and acknowledges an intent to reside in Alabama or in the designated Georgia County (Bartow, Carroll, Chattooga, Coweta, Douglas, Floyd, Haralson, Heard, Paulding and Polk). An international student in the United States on a student visa does not qualify for in-state residency status.

Check all appropriate items and enclose photocopies of supporting documents for each item checked. Send this complete packet to the address designated on the other side of this form. Examples of supporting documents are suggested after each criterion.
