RESEARCH IN PROGRESS

Working on an edition and translation of Peter of Verona's Summa contra hereticos with Mark Johnson of Marquette.

Working with Margaret Cormack of the College of Charleston to create a transnational database of Medieval Sanctity, preliminary project is completed and we have received much funding. I have already had research results from this project in my study of Peter of Verona and Thomas Becket, and I anticipate a new study on mendicant miracles in the near future.

Transcribing and editing four 14th and 15th century lives of Peter of Verona, anticipate completion in late 2011.

"Kathenodulia: Strategies for the Invocation of Christian Saints in the Middle Ages." Article-length study

An article-length project on the topos of Saint's meetings in medieval hagiography
