Jacksonville State University
Fall Preview Day Schedule
October 15, 2016

8:30 am, 9:00 am, 9:30 am or 10:00 am CT | Welcome Session
Theron Montgomery Building
This is your first stop for Preview Day. Here, you will have the opportunity to be officially welcomed to Jacksonville State University by the President, Dr. Beehler. Additionally, you will be given important information about the enrollment process.

8:30 am – 12:00 pm CT | Browse Session
Stephenson Hall Gymnasium
The Browse Session gives you the chance to meet some of our dynamic faculty, staff, and students. This come-and-go session features academic departments, support services, and other important offices for you to gain insight on the majors offered, opportunities on campus, and how to become a JSU student.

8:30 am – 12:00 pm CT | Campus Tours
Bibb Graves Hall
JSU is nicknamed the “Gem of the Hills” for a reason and the best way to learn why is to take a campus tour. You will walk around the central part of campus guided by a JSU student and discover what is inside each building, fun history and quick facts about JSU!

8:30 am – 12:00 pm CT | Residence Halls’ Open House
JSU Residence Halls
Choosing University Housing and Residence Life means more than just putting a roof over your head! JSU strives to provide its students with pleasant, furnished facilities that include special features and extras. JSU offers residents a variety of housing options. If you are going to be living on campus, take advantage of this self-guided open house.

9:00 am – 12:00 pm CT | Library Observation Deck
Houston Cole Library
At thirteen stories, Houston Cole Library is the tallest academic building in Alabama. Get a bird’s eye view of the campus and snap a photo of JSU from above! In addition to housing more than 700,000 volumes and nearly 44,000 electronic journal titles, the library is home to the Jazzman Cafe and the Alabama Room, which houses historical and genealogical documents and artifacts.

10:45 am CT | Gamecock Walk
William A. Meehan Hall
Come show your spirit for the Gamecocks and Coach Grass as the football team arrives for the game in front of William A. Meehan Hall and walks through the student tailgate area to the Gamecock Field House.

1:00 pm CT | Football Game
JSU Stadium
Get ready to see the JSU Gamecocks in action versus Austin Peay State University. Gates open at 11:30 a.m. and pre-game activities will follow leading up to kickoff. At JSU Stadium, the action does not stop at half-time. The award winning Marching Southerners are made up of students from across the country with a passion for music. For more than fifty years, the Marching Southerners have never lost a half-time. Admission to the game is compliments of the JSU Admissions Office.
