Honors Travel

Dublin, Ireland

In May 2017, five JSU students participated in the 3-hour study tour of Dublin, Ireland, where they were joined by students from other American universities. The study tour included an exploration of some of Dublin's most interesting sites including historic churches, museums, the Library at Trinity College, and other landmarks. Moreover, the group also enjoyed a full day at Causey Farm including a sheep round up and an Irish dance lesson. The students also ventured to Northern Ireland to visit Giant's Causeway and Carrick-a-Rede Rope Bridge followed by a narrated tour of Belfast by a local guide.

Washington, D.C.

Ten students traveled to D.C. during December 2017 as part of a 1-hour study tour led by Dr. Owens. The group toured the White House and were given a special tour of the U.S. Capitol courtesy of Congressman Mike Rogers' office. The study tour also included a visit to Mt. Vernon, various Smithsonian Museums, the Christmas Market and other local points of interest.

SRHC Conference

Four students were chosen to present at the Southern Regional Honors Council Conference in Washington, D.C. Each student researched and presented on the topics below:

- Economics in the Unexpected
- Laci Gurganus
- GAAP vs. IFRS
- Julia McCormick
- Exploring Perceptions of the Economy in the United States
- Corin Manning
- Include>Conform: Strategies for Teaching Diverse Students
- Emily Robertson

Honors Events

Honors Semi-Formal

Our co-presidents enjoyed dressing up for dinner and dancing at the Alumni House.

Serving Table

Honors students volunteered at The Serving Table at Jacksonville First United Methodist Church.

Haunted House

A haunted house was held in the Honors House in October along with fall festival games outside!

Valentines from the Heart

Honors students volunteered at Valentines from the Heart held by the Jacksonville Public Library to make Valentine's cards for nursing home patients.

Escape Room

An escape room was held in March 2018 at the Honors House with three different themes using puzzles and mind games for participants to solve.
