Honors Lecture – 12025 – UH 101 – 001

This course consists of a one-hour lecture and a one-hour Q&A. This class will introduce you to soul food, its history, culture, and the origins of this type of food. This is an interdisciplinary course that combines both culinary and history. During this course, we will discuss the culture and history of soul food, and how it has changed over the years. A tasting will be prepared for each class, and the meal will coincide with the lecture for that day. The students will be taught about the history of the meal, and the area of the country and/or continent the meal originated from.
