Program Description: This course is designed to prepare current and prospective leaders for the demands associated with supervisory and command-level roles in high-risk operational environments. Emphasis is placed on decision-making, leadership judgment, and performance under pressure through structured practical exercises. Participants engage in applied problem-solving activities that require evaluating conditions, selecting appropriate courses of action, and adapting to evolving situations. Instruction occurs across multiple training settings and includes controlled, scenario-based learning designed to reinforce safety, professionalism, and sound leadership practices. Program delivery is contingent upon minimum enrollment requirements.

Lodging: Tuition does not include lodging. Students must make their own arrangements.

Credit cards are accepted over the phone - contact 256-525-9808 and advise which course you are attending and the amount to be charged. NOTE: A credit card fee will be added to all credit card payments.
