

Randy Hanna

Randy Hanna has a lifetime of experience in higher education, business, finance, law, economic development, government relations, fundraising and community engagement. He served as Chancellor of the Florida College System from 2011 until January 1, 2015, where he led the system in a number of student success initiatives. Prior to being named Chancellor, he served as the managing shareholder of Bryant Miler Olive, a multi-state law firm from 1998 to 2011. He served as a member of the Board of Trustees for Florida A&M University, the University of West Florida and Tallahassee Community College. He also previously served as Chair of the Florida State Board of Community Colleges and the Florida College System Foundation.

He is currently a member of the Board of Directors of CareerSource Florida, the statewide workforce board and previously served as a member of the state's Higher Education Coordinating Council and the Florida Prepaid Tuition Board.

Hanna has served as special counsel to numerous governmental units and corporations and has worked on projects for agencies and colleges and universities, especially in the finance area and public private partnerships.

He received his Doctorate in Education from the University of Pennsylvania and his Juris Doctorate from Florida State University. Hanna has an M.B.A. from the Goizueta Business School at Emory University and a B.S. degree from the University of Florida.

Hanna has been listed in The Best Lawyers in America. He has served as Chairman of the Florida Board of Bar Examiners and Chairman of the Greater Tallahassee Area Chamber of Commerce.