

Our Own GO! Advisor, Dr. Erin Rider, Sociology

Below is the story that appeared in the Red and White – June 20, 2016

Meet the Faces Behind Orientation

As the first friendly faces incoming students see before starting their first semester, the Gamecock Orientation (GO!) team plays a pivotal role in the success of JSU freshmen.

Our elite group of student GO! Leaders this summer include:

- Andy Hoang, Exercise Science and Wellness
- Darlesha Deyampert, Biology (pre-health)
- DeLena Harris, Broadcast Journalism
- Elsie Ritchie, Communications
- Jared Davis, Marketing
- Joseph Dothard, Occupational Safety/Health Management
- Mark Thrower, Communications
- Sabrina Martin, Elementary Education
- Samaria Mayo, Nursing
- Shelby King, Nursing
- Tia Pendleton, Nursing
- Tyler Brown, Marketing

Our faculty/staff GO! Advisors are:

- Allen Gilbert, Kinesiology
- Brent Helms, Physical and Earth Sciences
- Christy Burns, English
- David Myer, English
- Erin Rider, Sociology
- Falynn Turley, Finance, Economics and Accounting
- Jennifer Foster, English
- Katelyn Williams, English
- Katerri Richardson, English
- Paul Hathaway, Political Science and Public Administration
- Stephen Tsikalas, Physical and Earth Sciences
- Taba Hamissou, Biology

The GO! staff includes:

- Terry Casey, Director
- Susan Adderhold, Secretary
- Josh Robinson, Graduate Assistant
- Blake Wilson, GO! Leader Coordinator
- Keaton Glass, GO! Leader Coordinator
- Mark Brandon, GO! Advisor Coordinator

Even if you're not on the GO! team, your help is needed to make our incoming students feel at home. Sessions will be held on Tuesday and Thursday this week. Please show our guests a warm "Friendliest Campus" welcome!