

American Democracy Project: Free Speech Forum

Tuesday, October 3, 2023 at 6:00 p.m.
11th Floor of Houston Cole Library

Sponsored by the JSU American Democracy Project (ADP) and the Judge Frank Johnson Institute

Individuals are invited to submit questions regarding any of the following topics:

- The importance of Free Speech
- Select Free Speech cases
- Protected and Unprotected speech
- Hate speech or offensive speech/Paradox of tolerance
- Free Speech rights for Faculty, Staff, and Administrators
- Free Speech rights for Students
- Self-censorship on campus or in the workplace
- Social Media and Free Speech
- Free Speech and Misinformation
- Safe Spaces
- Symbolic Speech
- Trigger warnings
- Inciteful speech
- Disruption of classes and campus activities
- Pronouns and Free Speech
- Shadow Banning online
- Freedom of Speech in the workplace

Free Admission for the JSU Campus and Community

All question submissions are anonymous.

All questions must be submitted in advance.

Contact: Dr. Lori Owens, Honors and Special Programs
256 782-8269 • ljowens@jsu.edu

For a list of panel members or to submit a question please scan the QR code:

SPECIAL PROGRAMS
JACKSONVILLE STATE UNIVERSITY

THE JUDGE FRANK M.
JOHNSON, JR. INSTITUTE

