LAW SCHOOL

ADMISSION

Begin taking the free, practice LSAT offered each semester by the office of Undergraduate Studies and Special Programs at JSU.

FRESHMAN YEAR

SOPHOMORE YEAR

Continue to take the free practice LSAT administered by the office of Honors and Special Programs and take practice tests on your own in a timed setting.

You should plan to take the official LSAT for the first time at the end of your junior year (usually the month of June).

You will need to subscribe/open your Credential Assembly file through the LSAC during the summer after completing your junior year. Pay close attention to the various deadlines associated with the application process.

Draft your résumé and personal statement in August and September leading into your senior year. Resources are available in the office of Undergraduate Studies and Special Programs to assist you with this process.

SENIOR YEAR

SENIOR YEAR

Request letters of recommendation from recommenders during August and September leading into your senior year. All letters will be sent directly to the LSAC.

Begin completing your law school applications in October and November. Adhere to all scholarship and financial aid deadlines to improve your chances of receiving assistance

SENIOR YEAR

Your application should be complete by mid-November of your senior year in order for you to be more competitive for scholarships and financial aid.

After you have been accepted to the law school of your choice, you should pay your seat deposit by the deadline and complete the student loan application process if you have not already done so.
